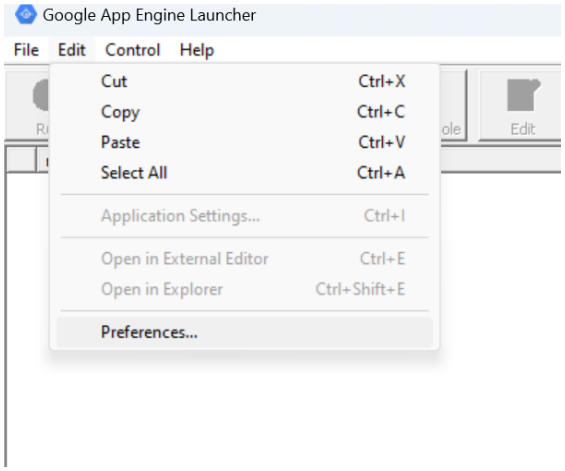
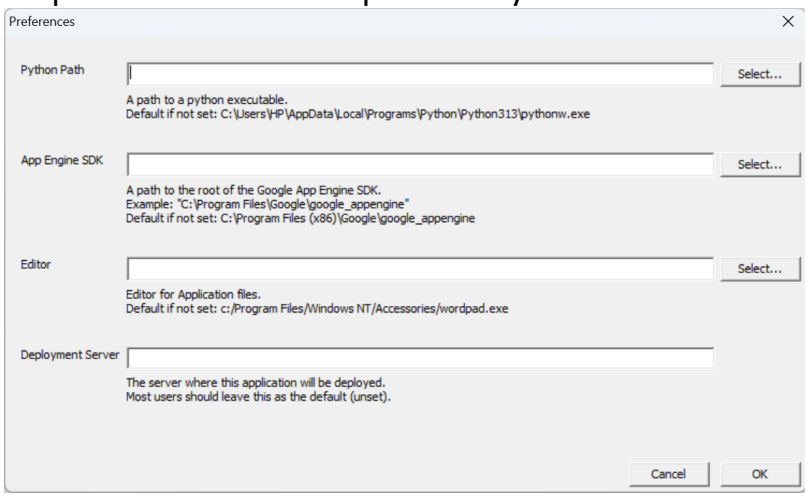
Practical 7: Install Google App Engine. Create hello world app and other simple web applications using python/java.

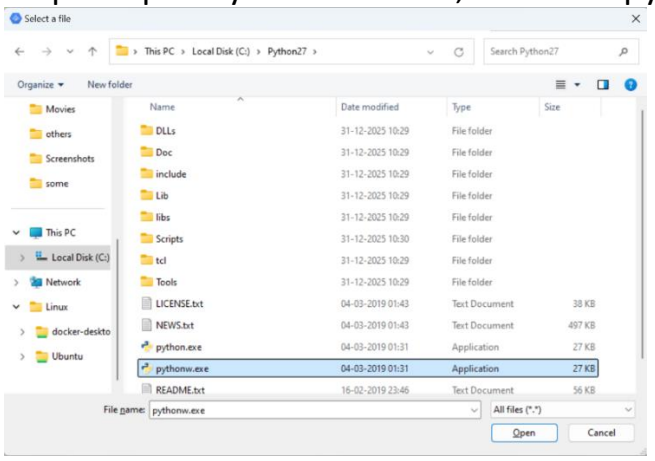
Step 1: Open Google App Engine and Goto Edit and Click on Preferences.



Step 2: Click on Select option of Python Path.

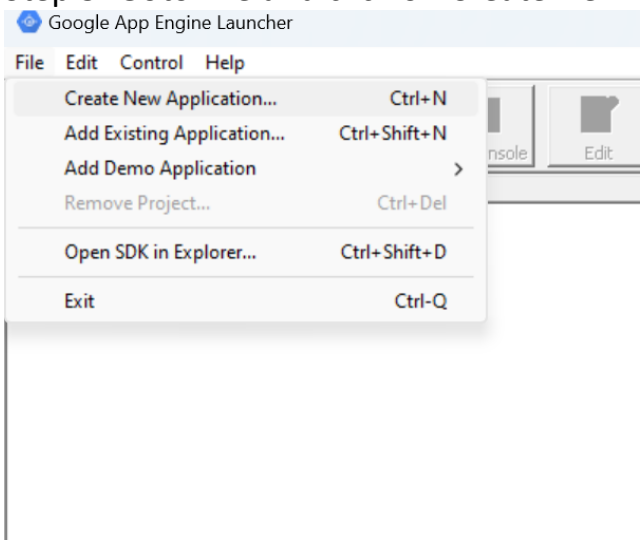


Step 3: Open Python27 Folder, select it's pythonw.exe file and Click Open.

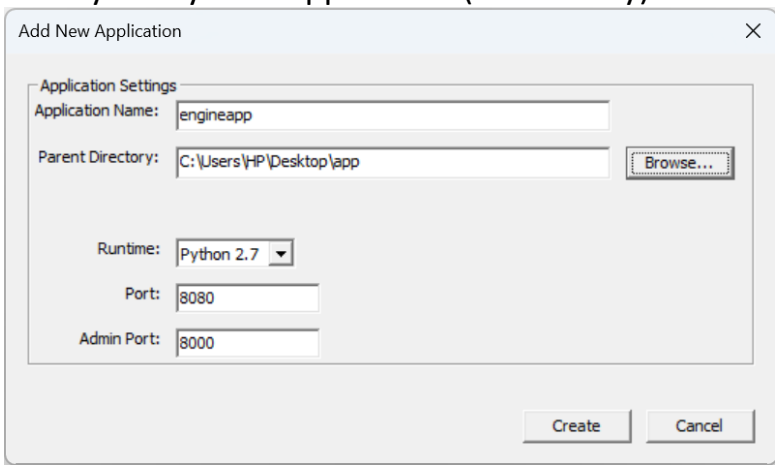


Step 4: Python Path has been set, rest keep as it is and now click on OK.

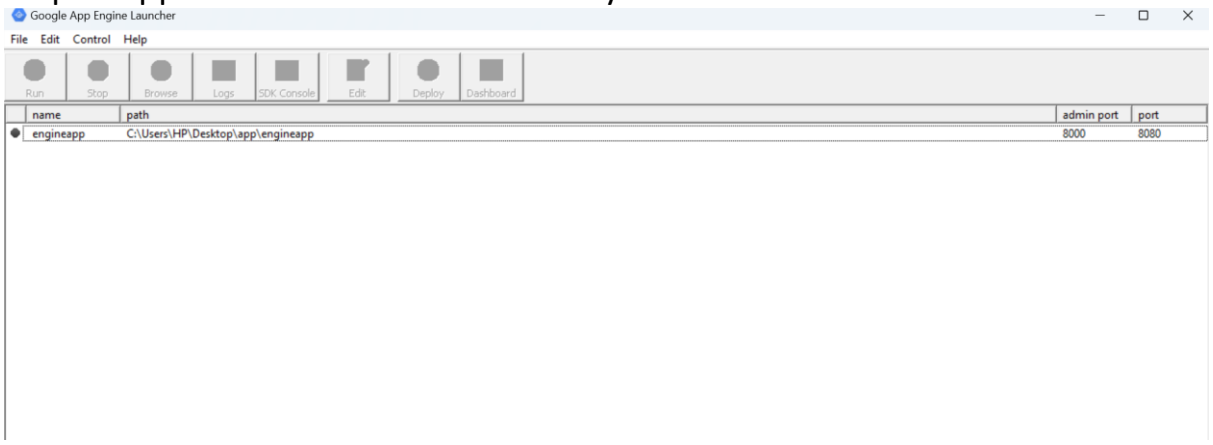
Step 5: Goto File and click on Create New Application.



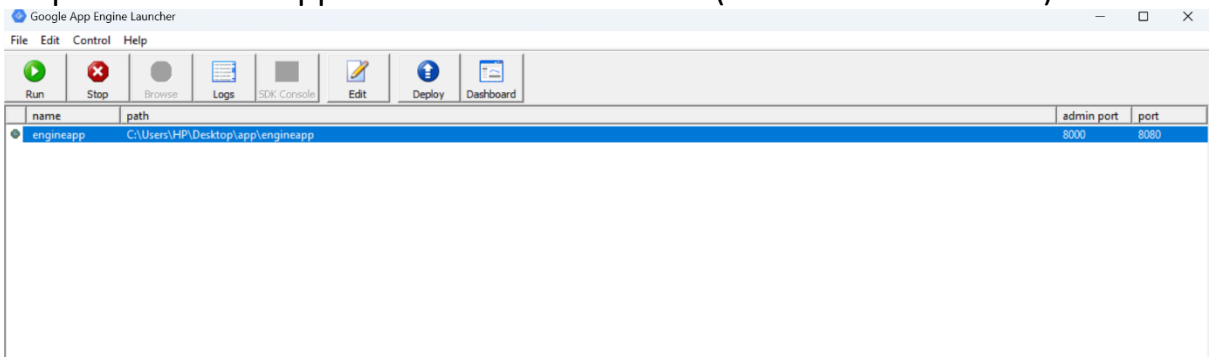
Step 6: Give Application Name and Parent Directory path where you have to store your Python Application (mandatory).

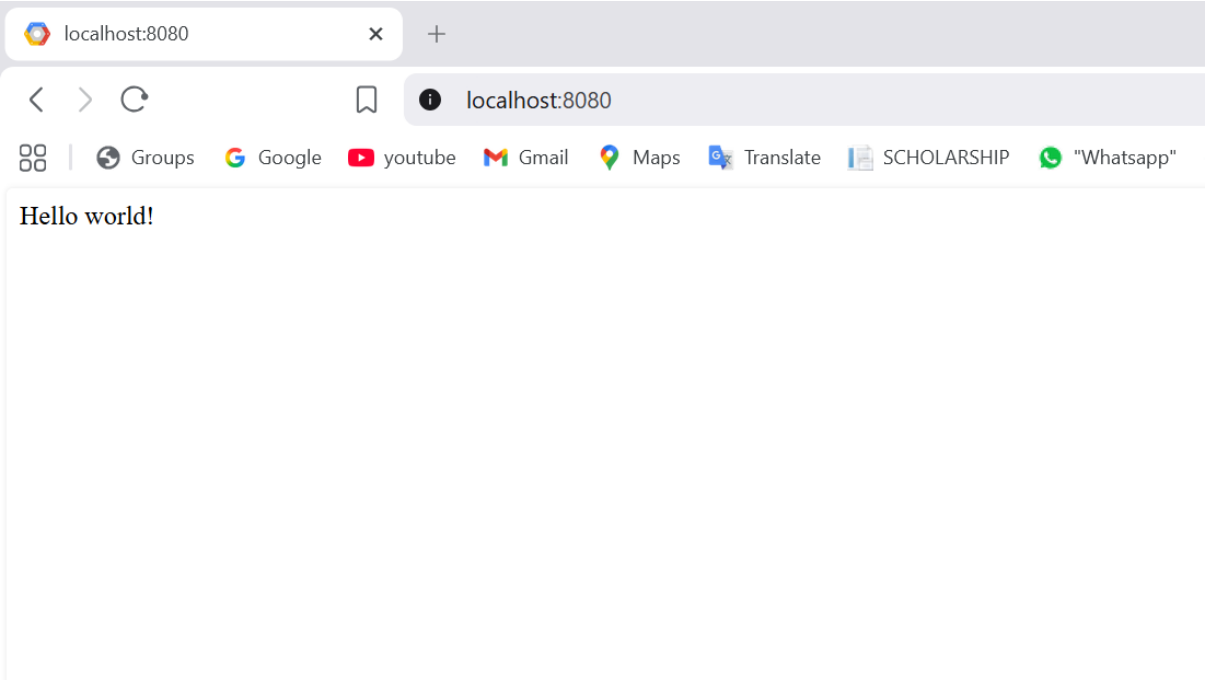


Step 7: Application has been successfully created.



Step 8: Select the Application and Click on Run (Wait for few seconds).





Step 9: To View the Output, Open Chrome and go on port where your application is running “http://localhost:8080”.